

Sandy Ingham, Trance Spirit Artist in NYC!

Sandy Ingham is an internationally acclaimed Medium and one of the few Trance Spirit Artists known today. It is fitting that her very first New York City appearance takes place at the Edgar Cayce Center.

The parallels between Sandy's Spirit Art and Edgar Cayce's Readings are compelling and indeed uncanny:

- She has no artistic ability whatsoever in the waking state, much like Mr. Cayce had no background in, or conscious knowledge of, medicine or anatomy.
- Like Mr. Cayce, Sandy will remove her shoes before entering the trance state and has no recollection of what has transpired during that time.
- As a child, Sandy had palpable and consistent contact with her "Friends" from the Spirit world, just as Mr. Cayce did.

Space is limited. Please register early for these one-of-a-kind events!

SPIRIT ART & COMMUNICATION Lecture & Demonstration By Sandy Ingham

Sandy Ingham will be guided in a self-induced trance state by her inter-dimensional Guide, Art Master "Leo," and, in a gallery-type setting, will deliver hand drawn portraits of those who have passed into Spirit for audience members spontaneously selected by her Guide.

As Sandy draws under the astute direction of Leo, she is also accompanied by a live Medium who will deliver oral messages from loved ones in Spirit to the intended recipients of the Portraits, each of whom will receive Sandy's completed drawing at the conclusion of this Demonstration.

Through this unique and awe-inspiring process of Trance Spirit Art, Sandy provides convincing evidential proof of after-death existence. Under the tutelage of her life-long Guide Leo, she seeks to heal the trauma of bereavement and to provide assurances of continued life on the other side. ■
