Lessons and Guidance from the Edgar Cayce's Readings

Sun | January 28 | 2018 | 3–5 pm

Today it often seems like we live in a culture of war, natural and other disasters, predation, crumbling institutions, defoliation, pollution and nuclear threats. Are these events and causes modern reflections of the Atlantean times described in the Cayce Readings?

Should we view the parallels here as portending things come?

In Edgar Cayce's nearly 700 Life Readings on incarnations in Atlantis, he gave startling accounts of how each recipient was influenced by those experiences in his or her present life.

Many of those who had several incarnations in Atlantis were returning in the last century, and particularly in America.

Why were they returning? What roles were they to now play in averting a repetition of those upheavals in the Atlantean lands?

In this gathering, Joseph will share guidance gleaned from the Cayce Readings to help us move through the coming earth changes towards an evolved, higher consciousness—only this time with peace, wisdom, prosperity and harmony instead of further chaos, violence, poverty and planetary destruction.
